

Three little words you often see are ARTICLES: a, an, and the. Circle the articles in each sentence below.

a) After the argument they all went home.

b) We saw a magnificent polar bear.

c) Eating an apple can help keep you healthy.

d) When the dog ran, it was tired.

e) They saw an enormous elephant.

f) Eating a banana can keep you healthy.

g) The moon orbits the earth once every twenty-seven days.

For each sentence below, circle the article that you believe is the best choice.

a) Karl sometimes makes the / a / an mistake.

b) The / a / an queen lives in the / a / an palace.

c) Please don't move the / a / an books on that table

d) He said he would come the / a / an minute that he finished doing the dishes.

e) I'd like to find the / a / an book to read

f) I asked him to pass me the / a / an apple from the bowl.

g) "What happened to you? Oh the / a / an dog next door bit me